

S.K.I.T. play performances begin today

January 23, 2010

Keizer

Salem Keizer Inspirational Teen Theatre (S.K.I.T.) is presenting "Holes" today and next weekend at Claggett Creek Middle School, 1810 Alder Drive NE, Keizer.

The play is adapted from a Disney comedy about a wrongfully convicted boy who gets sent to a strange desert camp where young inmates have to dig holes.

This production features 26 middle and high school students from Salem and Keizer. Assistant Director Haylee Schierling, a McNary graduate, plays the warden, and the Claggett Creek Middle School theater department handles the backstage sound, lights and other jobs. Lori Hammer directs.

Performances are at 7 p.m. today and Jan. 29 and 30 at Claggett Creek. Tickets are available at www.skittheatre.com or at the door. Cost is $10 for adults, $8 for students and seniors, and $5 for children.

S.K.I.T. offers classes and theater productions for school children during the school year.

More information is available on the program's Web site.

— Barbara Curtin

Kathy Coburn | Special to the Statesman Journal

The warden at Camp Green Lake (Haylee Schierling, right), has little patience for staff members Mr. Pendanski (Tyler Weld, left) and Mr. Sir (Eli Morrow). They are part of Salem Keizer Inspirational Teens' production of "Holes."